Late Policy

Where not specified, the assignment is due at 11:59 PM Central Time (note that this does NOT apply to homeworks which usually have a 2 PM deadline, and exams which have their own timings). (Time Zone Converter)

- The hard deadline is the deadline after which you will receive 0 points regardless of how well you did on the assignment. No late submissions will be accepted except under extremely rare non-academic circumstances (which usually require approval from the Dean's office).
- No assignment will be accepted after the last day of class.
- You can also see when each assignment is due by clicking the Assignments tab on the left menu bar.

Course Withdrawn and Refund

For course withdrawn-related questions, please refer to the Academic Calendars at <http://registrar.illinois.edu/academic-calendars> and select Fall 2018 on that page.

This fall course is a GRAD POT (Part of Term) 1, AKA, a full 16-week semester course.

For course refund information, please refer to the Office of the Registrar refunds website: <http://registrar.illinois.edu/refunds> and select Fall 2017 term. You can also refer to this website for the pro-rate refund schedule if you plan to withdraw from the course after the first day of classes for any given semester.

Academic Calendar

- The Graduate College at the University of Illinois maintains a Graduate College Calendar. The calendar includes important dates such as final exam dates, course registration and cancellation, and holidays.
- There is also a campus wide calendar available.
- The CS Department also sends reminders about upcoming deadlines. You will also receive the Graduate College newsletter in your Exchange email account.
